5. Is it a fact that Company's shares are to be traded compulsorily in Demat Form? Do I have the option of holding them in physical form?

Yes, trade in the Company's shares on the Stock Exchanges has to compulsorily be in demat form. However, you can exercise the option of holding the shares in physical form.

6. How do I get my dividends on dematerialised shares? Will I get the Annual Report after I demat my shares? Will I be able to attend the AGM?

It is advisable to register your NECS mandate with your Depository Participant to enable the Company to credit all your dividends electronically. On the Record date, the Depository Participants will provide a list of demat account holders indicating the number of shares held in electronic form (known as Benpos – Beneficiary Position). On the basis of Benpos, the Company will make dividend payments in favour of the demat account holders. The rights of the shareholders holding shares in demat form are at par with holders of shares in physical form. Hence, you will be eligible to procure the Annual Report and can rightfully attend the AGM as a shareholder.

7. Can I pledge my shares in demat form to avail any funding/loan arrangement with my bankers?

Yes

8. I have not received my dividend. What action do I take?

You may write to the Registrar and Share Transfer Agent / Investor Service Center of the Company furnishing the particulars of the dividend not received. Please quote your DP ID / Client ID / Folio Number. If the dividend remains unpaid in the records of the Company, we will issue a bankers' cheque/ demand draft in lieu of dividend warrant. An indemnity bond will be required if the unpaid dividend amount exceeds Rs.1,000/-.

9. Is it possible for you to issue stop payment instructions to the bank for the original warrant and issue a duplicate immediately?

Since the dividend warrants are payable at par at all branches of the dividend banker across the country, it is not practically possible for banks to issue stop payment instructions. Hence, it becomes necessary for us to wait till the expiry of the validity of original warrant.

10. Can I claim old dividends relating to past years that I have not received?

Shareholders who have not encashed their dividend warrants are requested to write to the Company's Registrar and Share Transfer Agent- KFin Technologies Private Limited.

Please note the amount of dividend remaining unpaid or unclaimed for a period of seven years from the date of transfer to Unpaid Dividend Account of the Company shall be transferred to the Investor Education and Protection Fund (IEPF) set up by the Government of India.
