Guidelines for Determining Materiality of Events

- A) Events specified in Schedule III Part A (A) of the Listing Regulations as amended from time to time and are deemed to be material events and will be disclosed irrespective of application of any quantitative and qualitative materiality thresholds.
- B) The following guidelines will be applied for determining materiality for events specified in Schedule III Part A (B) of the Listing Regulations, as amended from time to time.

Materiality will be determined on a case to case basis depending on specific facts and circumstances relating to the event / information.

- 1) In order to determine whether a particular event / information is material in nature, ‘quantitative’ criteria will be applied. ‘Quantitative’ criteria means the total monetary impact of the event / information whose value or the expected impact in terms of value, exceeds the lower of the following:
  - a. 2% of turnover, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements;
  - b. 2% of net worth, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements, except in case the arithmetic value of the net worth is negative;
  - c. 5% of the average of absolute value of profit or loss after tax, as per the last three audited consolidated financial statements.

- 2) In circumstances where 'quantitative' test may not be applicable or cannot be applied, a 'qualitative' or 'subjective' criteria as under will be applied to determine materiality:
  - a. the omission of an event or information, which is likely to result in discontinuity or alteration of event or information already available publicly; or
  - b. the omission of an event or information is likely to result in significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date; or
  - c. in case where the criteria specified in sub-clauses (a) and (b) are not applicable, an event / information may be treated as being material if in the opinion of the Board of Directors of the Company, the event / information is considered material; or
  - d. any event or information having a significant risk to the reputation of the Company; or
  - e. in the opinion of the Authorized Persons or Board of Directors of the Company, the event / information ought to be disclosed.
- C) In determining materiality, a number of factors such as the nature of the information (both quantitative and qualitative), prevailing market conditions, general business practices, industry scenario, business outlook, etc. shall also be taken into consideration.
- D) The Company will generally endeavour to disclose material information concerning the business and affairs of the Company promptly, except when required for the purpose of maintaining the confidentiality of the information.
- E) Any other information / event viz. major development that is likely to affect business, e.g. emergence of new technologies, expiry of patents, any change of accounting policy that may have a significant impact on the accounts, etc. and brief details thereof and any other information which is exclusively known to the Company which may be necessary to enable the holders of securities of the Company to appraise its position and to avoid the establishment of a false market in such securities.

Guidelines for Disclosure of Material Events

The Company may make disclosures of event / information as specified by SEBI from time to time.
